EPISCOPAL

BOOKSELLERS CATALOG

Read, Share and Shop from your 2014-15 EBA Catalog

Dear Readers,

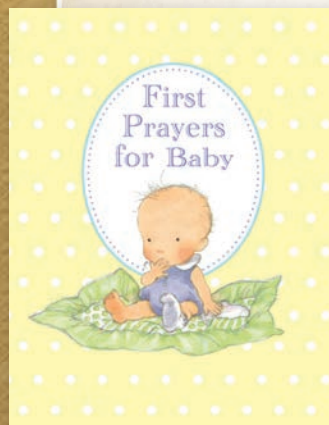

This year's Episcopal Bookseller's Catalog is packed with new and favorite books for all occasions and all ages. From faith-based Bible guides to spiritual examinations of life to compilations of daily meditations, there are many special reads to choose from. We are excited to have gifts in the catalog this year as well.

Proceeds from your purchase help support Episcopal stores, churches and cathedrals. Many of our member stores donate all of their proceeds to outreach, so your support is helping many more.

Please make your purchase from your local EBA member store or from a member store in the EBA directory: www.episcopalbooksellers.org.

The Bible Tells Me So

Peter Enns

Christians have had it drilled into them that their job is to defend the Bible against any challenge. But, what if God wants us to debate and wrestle with scripture? Enns exposes Christians' fear-based contradictory beliefs and shows a new way forward.

Skirting Heresy

The Life & Times of Margery Kempe

Elizabeth MacDonald

The life of this saint of the Anglican Church is a model, for all, of a deep dedication to a life centered in Jesus Christ. Margery Kempe was a visionary, a mystic, a pilgrim, a rebel. She escaped burning at the stake by the same men who had Joan of Arc put to death. A story of passion and conviction that reads like a novel.

Eager To Love

The Alternative Way of Francis of Assisi

Richard Rohr

Francis of Assisi, one of the most beloved of all saints, was at once very traditional and entirely revolutionary in the ways of holiness. A standing paradox, he stood barefoot on the earth, yet touched the heavens; he was grounded in the Church, yet instinctively moved toward the cosmos; he lived happily inside the visible and tangible, yet both suffered and rejoiced in the invisible.
